Space and Naval Warfare Systems Center Awards Contract

SAN DIEGO — Resource Consultants, Inc. of Vienna, Virginia, is being awarded a $5,402,873 indefinite-delivery/indefinite quantity-type contract with a cost plus fixed fee pricing arrangement for engineering and related technical support services for selected command and control technology systems and related equipment. This contract is to provide Space and Naval Warfare Systems Center San Diego with engineering and technical support services for selected command and control technology programs such as Global Command and Control System-Maritime, Navy Tactical Command Support System, Meteorological and Oceanographic Systems, and advanced experimental, demonstration, and developmental technology efforts such as Advanced Concept Site, Fleet Battle Experiments, Joint Warrior Interoperability Demonstration, and Extended Littoral Battlefield. This contract contains four one-year options, which if exercised, will bring the total cumulative value of this contract to $27,747,825. Work will be performed in San Diego (60%) and onboard U.S. Navy vessels and shore activities worldwide (40%). The period of performance is from February 2001 through February 2006. Contract funds obligated in the amount of $540,287 are from Navy Working Capital funds and will not expire. This contract was competitively procured, published in the Commerce Business Daily and posted to the SPAWAR E-Commerce web site with six offers received. The Space and Naval Warfare Systems Center San Diego is the contracting activity (N66001-01-D-5023).
